

Rob Montgomery has been at the forefront of the Vancouver Music Scene for over 40 years, Bandleader and Lead Guitarist/Vocalist for INCOGNITO (5 Albums) for 30plus years, has toured Canada and the U.S. performing Concerts, Festivals, and Clubs for many years while receiving extensive airplay in the Rock/Blues and Soul category.

During that time Rob Hosted the famously renowned Yale Saturday Blues Jam for over 15 years, as well as performing there on a regular basis. Rob took on many Musical Director duties putting together Special Events- BLUES for PAWS for the BC SPCA, LADIES SING the BLUES, SWEET HOME CHICAGO, No Quarter, The ALL-STAR Blues Review, and many more. After the YALE was redeveloped, Rob formed the "BLUES in the CITY Concert Series," taking these successful shows out to many other Venues in Western Canada and still goes very strong today.

Rob has released 2 solo albums- Rob Montgomery & Friends, followed by Guitar Stories, and a 3rd CD is almost complete. Rob also Produces, Engineers and helps guide many Singer/Songwriters in their Musical Direction. Also a Guitar Teacher/Vocal and Songwriting Coach.

Rob is very excited about being of assistance to the Directors of C.M.C.and the Members, and looks forward to an exciting future for the years ahead.

Thanks, Rob Montgomery
