

Robert Campbell

Music

Robert originally studied classical piano and pipe organ and later graduated from Grant McEwan jazz college. He played in rock bands across Canada and toured with many recording artists (Patricia Conroy, Susan Jacks, Buddy Knox, et al.). Recording and working with producer/songwriter Ralph Murphy (Nashville) back then sparked an interest in songwriting but not until 2006 did he start in earnest.

In 2012 a move to Nova Scotia, with partner Cailin Green, led to writing and recording albums as 'Campbell+Green', featuring some of the east coast's finest players:

- Ready-Made Christmas' (2019)
- On Being Human (2018)
- 2 Of Hearts (2016)
- When One Door Closes (2015)
- East (2013)

They have toured Europe 3 times and Canada yearly. Robert is continuing to write and co-write with writers & artists across Canada, USA and Europe. Roberts' songs have been recorded by Campbell+Green and other artists, used in video & soundtracks, and have been held by producers for synch and more are in the pipeline.

In B.C. and Nova Scotia Robert has hosted over 50 house concerts with artists from around the world & seminars with folks like Pat Pattison, Susan Crowe, Lynne Hanson and many others.
