

Michael Hwang is a lawyer with 30 years experience and has served on the boards of many local and international organizations dedicated to social justice and community development.

He currently serves on the boards of B.C.'s Small Business Roundtable, New Vista Society and The Spirit of Children Society, and as the legal advisor to Vancouver Asian Heritage Month Society and Pacific Museum of Migration Society.

He has also been a partner of a heritage theatre in downtown New Westminster for over 10 years in order to influence grass roots changes in our community through performing arts and artists. Michael has agreed to serve as a pro bono legal and governance advisor of CMC during its formative years.
